Division 14 Golf and Picnic

"Make sure September 10 is on your club calendar. That's the day for our Division 14 Golf Outing & Picnic. The location is the Bobolink Golf Club in Avon. We will have 18 holes of golf for at least 15 foursomes with contests and prizes followed by a great steak fry and picnic for golfers and all Kiwanians and guests. This would be a great event to cultivate your friends and associates to consider becoming Kiwanians. This also is designed to help raise some additional

THIS-N-THAT > > > Frank Miller reported on the progress of Ken Fouts and Suzanne Metelko. Ken is planning a wedding on June 7; while Suzanne is hopeful her illnesses will be ending soon. A card to all of our shut-ins would be greatly appreciated.....We are desperately looking for a pianist, our present one seems to know only one note on the piano.....The day's 50/50 was won by Don Strater. Following Don was Bob Homer who won the 50/50 at the breakfast. All their winnings were donated to the Scholarship Foundation..... Ray Gerber, our "Captain of Fundraising", reported on the breakfast and thanked all those who helped in any way to produce another successful event. Ron Lewis followed up by also reporting a very successful "Pete's Table" sale.

Our hats are off with our thanks to Jim Ciolek, Manager of the Lakewood Caribou Coffee house. Jim donated 15 gallons of Caribou Coffee to our pancake breakfast. Now we know why the coffee was such a great compliment to the outstanding Pancakes and French toast.
