Bobby Gheen's Recovery

“.....Bobby is doing very well. No problems with that ear at all. I guess (the) third time is a charm. He was originally scheduled for surgery on his birthday, but the doctor rescheduled us for August 7. He likes to wait 6 months after a revision before he will do the other ear. He has to lay on the right ear for an 8 hour surgery, so they want it to be completely healed and healthy before doing the other ear. Info that would have been helpful before we scheduled our June flights. (A) Slight setback for us. We are now rescheduled and rebooked for August! Sometimes Bobby talks really brave and says he can't wait to get the other ear and other times he is ok with just having one. We will see how things go.”

THIS-N-THAT FROM LAST WE MET
>>>> Division 14 Lt. Governor, Tim Mohr, received the following from Ohio District Secretary, Dave Whiteman indicating that the Ohio District Board has decided against a vote for increasing district dues at the upcoming Ohio District Convention in August.....From the KCL board meeting - All committee chairs should turn in their committee reports directly to Nancy Andrade via phone, letter or email - refer to your club directory for details. Nancy will coordinate your reports so we will be able to report them to K.I. as current activities. It would be helpful if your report were turned in to Nancy by the 10th of the month so it could be reported on time. Reporting is the responsibility of all committee chairs.....Bob Lorbach is currently at St. John West Shore and Greg Hillow is at Lakewood Hospital....Through KCL Board elections, Andrew Bischof has been elected President for 2008-2009, Bob Homer as President-elect and John Mumma has Vice President. Congratulations to all these Kiwanians.
