July 4th Fund Raiser.....

Toni Gelsomino and husband Anthony are organizing our Lakewood Park Hot Dog Booth and they need your help. Set up time is 8:30 A.M. on Friday and we will be open until 3:00 P.M.

The help of all KCL members is needed to set up, sell hot dogs & chili dogs, hand out Kiwanis information and help foster good Kiwanis friendship with our community. Of course there is always the need for clean-up. There is a need for two 24" BBQ grills.

Be reminded that from now through September, there are three very important fund raisers and the support of all members is needed to continue our tradition of having successful events....Bob Homer reported that over 100 new member prospect names were received at our previous membership meeting. Letters are being sent to these prospects informing them of Kiwanis and inviting them to membership.....Lt. Governor Tim Mohr reported over $900 was raised/donated by Division 14 clubs in order to send our new Key Club Lt. Governor Erica Oblena, who attends Magnificat High School, to the Denver Key Club Convention. One-third of that amount was donated by KCL.....Betty Williams, daughter of past KCL member, Ed Sergeant, passed away June 23, at the age of 94 years.
