THIS-N-THAT FROM LAST WE MET

> > > Once again our Immediate Past President John Wilson called the meeting to order taking the opportunity to wish all Kiwanians and their families the very best of holiday greetings and a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year.....Don Fox took to the podium announcing that there will not be a Kiwanis Calendar this year. However the issue will be revisited by the Board for their consideration. Don also reported the revised edition of the club Bylaws and Operations Manual is currently at the printers and will be available soon. Additionally, the 2009 Edition of the Club Roster is being finalized and will also be available after the first of the year. “Patrons” of the new Club Roster are asked to donate $10 to help defray the cost of printing and they will have their names included on the “Patron’s Page”. Donations should be made to Vic Cachat.....Tom Kirsop reported that Pat McAllister is currently in Fairview Hospital as is one of our newest members Ann Wilkins who is one of our active workers in the Growing Healthy Together project. We wish both a speedy recovery.....Vic Cachat and George Everden, once again, presented the Lakewood Kiwanis Golfers their well deserved trophies; Dick Seib, Low Gross Score of 84, John Russell Low Net Score of 71, and Jim Westlake for the Longest Putt. Our President-elect, Bob Homer was not in attendance to receive his very distinguished award for the “Highest Number of Putts”. Congratulations to all for their well earned recognition.....Our special thanks to Les Wilson for taking care of the annual poinsettia fundraiser and to all those who support it.....Bring family and friends to the Annual Lakewood Kiwanis Christmas Program next Tuesday. Our choir, conducted by John Wrabel, will highlight the season with familiar Christmas carols and music.
