THIS-N-THAT FROM LAST WE MET

>>> In the absence of our President, Andy Bischof, our Immediate Past President John Wilson conducted the meeting.....Tom Kirsop, reporting on the health of the club, noted Pat McAllister is currently recovering in Fairview Hospital, Room 509, while the husband of Ann Wilkins remains in the hospital. We also learned of the passing of Frank Miller's brother. Our condolences to family and friends..... Don Fox reminded us of the need for personal hygiene products that are being collected for the Keating Center, and Y-Haven. The boxes will be packed in January. Thanks to all who donated needed items.....Harvey Streitl and Tim Mohr announced the retirement of Santa's helper, Ron Lewis, and Ken Warren as Director of Lakewood Library. Our thanks to both for their community service.....Dan Gerome donated a Lakewood Ranger doll that was promptly auctioned off by Ron Lewis with proceeds going to the Scholarship Foundation.....Among our guests was Tom Frasier, a past scholarship winner..... Foundation President, Toni Gelsomino, and Secretary Matt Rawlings presented the updated Scholarship Foundation Bylaws for approval which was unanimously accepted.....Past Lt. Governor, Tim Mohr announced Lakewood Kiwanis will be receiving the “Distinguished Club Award” for 2007-‘08 and the “Annual Fund Donor Banner Patch” for our support of the K.I. Foundation.....Tim continued with the induction ceremony for the Reverend George R. Hansell, Jr. as the newest member of Lakewood Kiwanis. Rev. Hansell is the current Pastor of Grace Lutheran Church of Lakewood.....The “Pass the Can” collected $56 for Lakewood Christian Service Center.....We were informed of the passing of former member Robert Terry.....Paul Dimmick, Attendance Chairman, presented “Perfect Attendance Pins” to John Scofield with 34 years, Dave Norton and Vice President John Mumma with one year. It was nice to have John back with us after a time away. oo0oo
