Electronic District Newsletter Changes

Beginning with this issue of our (Ohio) district newsletter, it will only be prepared in an electronic format. You can access it online through our district website at www.ohiokiwanis.org or we can email it to you. The District Education and Communication Action Team members are working on a revised format for our newsletter that we hope will be available early in 2009. We will be emailing this to all Kiwanians who have an accurate email address on the Kiwanis International database in Indianapolis. If you are a Club Secretary and are aware of email address corrections that need to be made, please contact the district office right away. We can email you a list of your members with email addresses included that can be updated and returned to our office to notify Kiwanis International of the revisions. Your help will be very much appreciated.

KeyLeader

Another successful KeyLeader event took place during the weekend of November 14-16. Sixty-one students from twenty-six different high schools in Ohio were in attendance. An associate of District Convention Keynote speaker Brendan Burchard, Jenni Robbins was the lead facilitator. Jenni presented a variety of information to the students by enlisting the five facets of service leadership: personal growth and integrity, respect, building community, and the pursuit of excellence. KeyLeader returns to Ohio May 15-17, 2009.

THIS-N-THAT FROM LAST WE MET

> > > President Andy Bischoff presided over the meeting following his return from vacation.....With us after a long absence was our very distinguished member, Bob Lorbach. Welcome back Bob and we'll look forward to having you be with us again...

As this was our annual Christmas Program the event brought many family and friends as guests to the event.....The program featured the Lakewood Kiwanis Choir directed by John Wrabel and provided song and music of the season. Featured in the program were solos by Carole Wrabel and Thomas Glynn. Tom is one of our newest members and his outstanding voice added greatly to the chorus. With our thanks to all choir members for their coming early to practice each week to Ray Goodrich for organizing to John Wrabel conducting and to John Brinkman for narrating the program as a substitute for Matt Rawlings whose voice was not up to it, for all their coming together once again to bring us the music of Christmas.....

Suzanne Metelko wishes to thank all those who sent get well cards and says that she can be taken off the shut-in list. She is back at work and has been trying to catch up on the past six months work..... oo00o
