You probably didn't notice the change in the side bar to the left but there is a small change.....Another year was added as we celebrate the birthday of The Kiwanis Club of Lakewood....yes it's the 88th birthday....

Harry Hoard, a Lakewood resident and president of the Cleveland club in 1921, is referred to as the "Daddy" of the Lakewood club. although at the time it was not the custom for one club to sponsor another, Mr. Hoard approached Dr. Walter Keating, and discussed the possibility of extending the benefits of Kiwanis to Lakewood.

In early April, Hal Denton, a Kiwanis International club organizer, quickly began asking new members to join. J.W. Chrisford, better known as "Bill," was the first to sign the roll and became the club's first vice-president. Dr. Keating assumed the duties of president. W.H. "Bill" Steinkamp was the first secretary-treasurer of Lakewood Kiwanis, an office he held for the first three years of the club's existence.

New directors included Rev. Alfred J. Wright, minister of the Lakewood Presbyterian church; John C. McGonagle, manager of the Lakewood Buick Company; Harry A. Barr, highly respected in the real estate profession;

Lewis Reidy, a furniture dealer; Jack Graham, food merchant; Dr. D.W. Peterson, a well-known dentist; and William R. Daniels, then laying the foundation of what was to become one of the leading undertaking establishments in the state.

In the year of our club's organization, the Kiwanis International Convention took place in Cleveland. Lakewood Kiwanis delegates were Dr. Keating and Charles T. Rich, with alternates J.W. Chrisford and Rev. A.J. Wright.

Let's Get the Red Out of Here!

KCL Members are familiar with the red in a new member's badge. Most would understand that the red means the member has not taken advantage of becoming familiar with certain meetings and participating in fundraisers or other Kiwanis activities....

Currently there are 22 badges showing red. Perhaps one of the reasons for this is that the new member has not been specifically informed of just how to "Get the Red Out".

In trying to find out just how one gets the red out and by speaking with several members and just recently finding a board approved procedure that was outlined by the Strategic Planning Committee a few years back, it continues to be somewhat of a mystery. Most would agree the idea behind getting the red out is a good way for our new members to become familiar with being a Kiwanian and becoming involved in Kiwanis activities including Kiwanis Fellowship.

At this month's Board of Directors meeting the Membership Committee announced it was taking on the initiative to review and make recommendations for clarifying the procedures and purpose of "Getting the Red Out" and that it would begin to track new members more closely. It would seem that it is and should be a very significant part of becoming a Kiwanian and a member of the Kiwanis Club of Lakewood....
